

JAN 31 1965

Tom Williamson Dies, Army Chemical Expert

Tom Williamson, 54, a former Army chemical engineer who had worked with the Central Intelligence Agency since 1952, died Friday at Doctors Hospital of cancer. He lived at 408 Churchill rd., McLean.

A Texan who graduated from the University of Texas, Mr. Williamson formerly worked for the Texas Co. During World War II he served with the Army Chemical Corps at Edgewood and Huntsville Arsenals and in Europe, becoming a lieutenant colonel.

He won an Army commendation ribbon at Huntsville and later a certificate of merit for service as deputy division chief in the office of the chief chemical officer of European Headquarters.

Mr. Williamson was a member of the American Chemical Society and Mt. Olivet Methodist Church in Arlington.

Surviving are his wife, Frieda, and a son, Michael.